

FORCED LABO[U]R SUPPLIER QUESTIONNAIRE

If you have received this communication from another Price Industries affiliate or division, including SolutionAir, please disregard and complete only one request.

Following comparable US legislation, the Canadian government recently passed new legislation aimed at combating global Forced Labour and child labour in supply chains. This legislation requires businesses to investigate supply chains, provide public reporting the steps taken to prevent the forced labour in it's supply chain and establish policies and procedures to remediate any violations or potential violations within their supply chain.

Price Industries and its affiliates are performing a supply chain review to evaluate potential risks and will be working with suppliers to make sure any identified risks are properly addressed. As part of this initiative we ask that you complete the information below.
